Bill No: HR014-113

Issue: Post Prison Readjustment Program

Sponsors: Candice Caudle

I. Intent of the Bill: The purposes of this bill are to:

1. Lower crime rates
2. Provide temporary homes for ex-cons
3. Assist ex-cons in being mentally and financially stable
4. Keep ex-cons off the streets and safe

II. Letter of the Bill: Be it enacted that:

1. To lower crime rates, we will provide temporary homes for ex-cons
2. and assist them in being mentally and financially stable to keep
3. them off the streets and safe. There should be homes for ex-cons to
4. stay in temporarily while they readjust back to their normal lives. Each
5. state would be responsible for providing temporary homes for people
6. who had just been released from prison. In these homes, the people
7. would be monitored. They would stay in these homes for a certain
8. amount of months, or until those in charge of the house feel that the
9. offender no longer needs to stay in the home. The money necessary
10. to enforce this new law will come from state taxes. If a state fails to 11. provide a home or does allow certain people or groups to stay in the

12. homes provided, that state would be fined anywhere from $15,000-
13. $30,000. The Federal Bureau of Prisons would be in charge of
14. enforcing this new law. This law would benefit society because it would
15. reduce crime rates by keeping criminals from going back out on the 16. streets after prison where they would be more likely to continue doing
17. what they had done to get the, put into prison in the first place. It
18. would keep the ex-cons safe as well because without these homes,
19. most people coming out of prison don't have a place to stay, a family,
20. a job, friends that they can rely on to give them a place to stay and
21. help them readjust back to their normal life or hopefully a life better
22. than theirs was before they had been convicted which is the main
23. purpose of the Post Prison Readjustment Programs. Money from fines
24. would go into funding more Post Prison Readjustment homes across
25. America. This bill will go into effect January 1, 2015.
